

Abstract of the Invention

The invention provides multifocal lenses containing at least four zones of 5 refractive power. The zones are positioned such that the wearer is able to use the inferior-most portion of the lens to clearly view objects at distances more than about 45 cm from the eye.